

Introducing the Global Financial Markets - Evening

An evening program covering all aspects of international finance given by experts and market practitioners with guest speakers from leading banking, securities and regulatory institutions.

Special Offer

Clients who register for this course will receive a complimentary 4-month subscription to FT.com. The Financial Times is the world's most respected financial newspaper, providing a broad assessment on finance, business and the industrial sector. The move to the electronic version follows an ongoing review of our environmental responsibilities as a global business and as part of the Pearson group. FT.com also has features that are not available in hard copy, such as: Special Reports, Alphaville, editor blogs, education sections and much more! Subscriptions will start within 6-8 weeks of the start of class and are limited to one subscription per client. (Please note: as of May 1, 2011, the electronic subscription replaces the hard-copy 3-month Financial Times subscription.)

Advance Preparation

No advance preparation required.

Learning Objectives

Students will be able to:

- . Identify key financial products and discuss how they are issued, priced and traded by financial institutions

- . Compare and contrast new markets ideas in debt, equity and derivatives

- . Understand the changing financial landscape and how global events have impacted key players and the challenges we face
